The Dam Breaks: New Laws Flood Schools

Save the Date!

Friday, September 13, 2019

9:00 AM - 2:30 PM

Augusta Civic Center

76 Community Drive, Augusta, ME 04330

Presented in partnership with Maine School Management Association

The 2019 legislative session has generated a host of changes to education laws that will have a profound impact on school employment, students and school board policy-making. Please mark the date on your calendar for a comprehensive review of the new legislation by Drummond Woodsum attorneys. New laws that have been or are likely to be enacted include:

- Changes in teacher evaluation;
- A new minimum teacher salary;
- Student immunization requirements;
- Altered collective bargaining duties;
- Food shaming ban;
- A model DOE student discipline policy;
- And others!

Who should attend?

This program is designed primarily for Superintendents, Central Office Administrators, School Boards, and Principals.
